

REVEALING HIDDEN FUTURES

Three small moves to widen what's possible.

STEP INTO ONE NEW CONTEXT

Identity grows when environment changes.

Sit in a room you don't normally sit in.

Join a conversation outside your lane.

Walk with someone whose work looks nothing like yours.

New context. New sight.

BORROW SOMEONE ELSE'S EYES

Sometimes possibilities are first seen by someone who isn't you.

A trusted colleague, a mentor, a leader who names something in you you haven't recognised yet.

Possibilities open up when someone reflects back a future you didn't see.

ACT LIKE THE FUTURE SELF, ONCE

Send the email you avoid.

Ask the honest question.

Hold the boundary you normally soften.

Do one thing that the current you wouldn't do.

Action opens the fork.
