THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

What treasure do we have in these waters?

What difference does it make to be baptized into Christ?

Jesus is like water: always seeking the lowest point.

To be baptized is to be changed—once for all and again every new day—into people who go down to the bottom instead of trying to climb to the top.

This is the path of healing and transformation.

We know it when rock bottom becomes our new foundation.

As Richard Rohr says, “the view from the top of anything is distorted by misperception, illusions, fear of falling, and a radical disconnection from the heart.”

From below, I see clearly—reality, resilience, healing, who I really am, who God really is.

Jesus calls us to be where he is—near the poor, the sinner, the suffering, and the enemy. That’s not just to help them, but to let them help us in ways we never knew we needed.

Baptism is this call in our lives.

Baptism gives us this Spirit to go into the depths and not to stay just on the surface of things. Down into grief. Down into love. Letting go. Unlearning. Baptism shows us who we’ve always been and who we will always be—a beloved child of an endlessly strong and wise Mother, an endlessly gentle and loving Father.

Baptism brings us back home.

When we are at home in God, we don’t even need to be afraid of what we have done or what others have done to us. Need, desire, doubt, resistance, rebellion are no threat either. We can include them. We can include everyone and every thing and exclude nothing and no one.

Because God wastes nothing, not even sin. Because in Christ, all things hold together.

This is the treasure in these waters. This and every other promise of goodness, mercy, and life.

You are baptized into the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

We are baptized into the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and with Christ and all creation, we will forever fall into love and rise to new life. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let's pray together.

Holy and righteous God, you are the author of life, and you adopt us to be your children. Fill us with your words of life, that we may live as witnesses to the resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

WORD

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE with BLESSING READER

FIRST READING: Acts 3:12-19

A reading from Acts.

¹⁷"And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. ¹⁹Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out."

Word of God, word of life. Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 4

¹Answer me when I call, O God, defender of my cause;
you set me free when I was in distress; have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

²"You mortals, how long will you dishonor my glory;
how long will you love illusions and seek after lies?"

³Know that the LORD does wonders for the faithful;
the LORD will hear me when I call.

⁴Tremble, then, and do not sin;
speak to your heart in silence upon your bed.

⁵Offer the appointed sacrifices, and put your trust in the LORD.

⁶Many are saying, "Who will show us any good?"
Let the light of your face shine upon us, O LORD.

⁷You have put gladness in my heart,
more than when grain and wine abound.

⁸In peace, I will lie down and sleep;
for you alone, O LORD, make me rest secure.

SECOND READING: 1 John 3:1-7

A reading from 1st John.

¹See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

⁴Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. ⁶No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. ⁷Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Word of God, word of life. Thanks be to God.
