Introduce yourself	I'm a photorealistic figurative painter interested in investing the experience of the body in this post-modern immaterial era. I am inspired by the poetry of the nude in contrast with the aesthetic of extreme experiences.
Do you have a project in mind at this time?	I'm working on a new project titled "MY BODY, (NO)BODY". It explores the self-destructive tendencies of our liquid contemporaneity marked by immateriality, immediacy, speed and

Tell us why you want to join Quarantine	The experience seems to be very inspiring. Working with my most significant artistic references would be a fantastic opportunity.
Briefly describe your Artistic and Creative difficulties	I want to reach a more fluently brushstroke, and I'm working on perfecting the hyperrealistic technique. However my principal challenge is to theorise my pictorial concerns and artísticas practices. I am confident on my speech and pictorial lenguaje, but I need to polish its theorisation.
