Introduce yourself	Born in 1971 and graduated from College for Creative Studies in Detroit w/ a BFA in design. I disliked the advertising world and started my own technology companies where I could apply creativity to technology and business problems. Over the years I have been an art hobbyist taking classes at local ateliers. Recently started painting full time.

Do you have a project in mind at this time?	Yes! I am working on a series of figure paintings which focus on telling the stories of trauma that people overcome in their lives. I'm also focused on building my skills and producing at a high level.
Tell us why you want to join Quarantine	I am fascinated with the process of producing art. I feel I've gained a strong foundation in technique and am starting to push the conceptual and artistic voice of my work. From what I've seen, Quarantine seems like the only program that focuses on muse hacking!
Briefly describe your Artistic and Creative difficulties	I struggle with story telling in my work. It's been largely representational and I'm pushing to introduce more narratives into my work.
What are your inner demons?	Block , Style , Stagnation
Anything else you want us to know?
