Introduce yourself	Hi!! I'm currently 23 years old, originally from the Midwest. Last year, I graduated from Ringling College of Art and Design. I was living in Tampa, but I felt like I lost myself, so I recently moved back to Indiana, and I'm trying to reconnect with myself again. I love making cute and fun pieces that occasionally connect with darker topics.

Do you have a project in mind at this time?	I have an idea for a cartoon! It's based on a lot of my trauma. It's about an elf girl that runs away from a cult. She gangs up with some new friends and they fight off the horrifying and silly demons that are sent after her to capture her and harvest her power. I have a good start, but I really want to dig deep & flesh it out as much as possible.
Tell us why you want to join Quarantine	I've felt lost since I graduated college, and I recently got out of an abusive relationship. I want to go all in on something for myself after I spent so much time neglecting myself. I love challenging myself and allowing myself to think deeply, and I feel like this would be a perfect opportunity to push myself.
Briefly describe your Artistic and Creative difficulties	I absolutely love coming up with ideas, but I find it hard to stick to something. I want it to be absolutely perfect, so I get hung up on all of the "what-ifs." Handling mistakes is something I want to become more comfortable with not only with my art, but also in everyday life.
What are your inner demons?	Insecurity , Block , Stagnation
Anything else you want us to know?	When I was in Tampa, I was working six days a week, paying for most of the rent and food, doing all of the housework, taking care of my boyfriend at the time, and I was isolated from any friends or family. I think that's the hardest thing I've done, and I was still extremely dedicated. I know I'm loyal and driven, and I want what's best for me now.

✓I have read the Quarantine "INTERZONE" program and understand the basic concept and format of the event, and I am aware that only a very small number of applicants are selected and I wish to apply.
