Introduce yourself	Born in 1991 but surely carrying a much older soul that doesn't seem to find a way to creatively fit this current world we live in. I've always done art, even if simple, since I can remember. I've always felt connected to everything artistic and everything I did always felt natural to me. I've lost that in the past few years. Just gone.

Do you have a project in mind at this time?	The fact I don't feel like I have any limitations in what I am capable of, (I know I do and I don't mean that in an arrogant way) makes me feel overwhelmed and have so many ideas and not make any of them actually happen. I guess just somehow show a little bit of all I do to let people see my mind would be great. Scary. But great
Tell us why you want to join Quarantine	From all I read about the Quarantine, the part that got to me the most was that it's a place to heal creativity and the progress as an artist. Which is how I feel (used to). By now I'm not sure any medicine will make me feel like myself again. I've been thinking I need some different experience, I opened my email a few days ago and maybe this is it
Briefly describe your Artistic and Creative difficulties	To be honest, I don't even know anymore. I used to think about that but I gave up on those thoughts and am now just hoping to feel creative again and feel the pleasure I used to feel when I did my things and felt more connected with that part of me that is actually the whole me. Help? haha.
What are your inner demons?	Block , Stagnation , Inconsistency , Style , Insecurity
Anything else you want us to know?	I think this is an amazing thing you're doing. Thank you for the intentions of the program!
