Introduce yourself	I'm a 33 year old female Australian artist. My practice began as a child - I drew cartoon characters from the TV. In my early 20's I entered art education to develop studio skills in printmaking. Disillusioned by the institution, I pivotted into Art Therapy - curious about the emotional process of creativity. In 2023, I made my first oil painting.

Do you have a project in mind at this time?	In 2023 I spent a year as an Artist in Residence in Fremantle. A body of work emerged in my drawing and painting practice. This body of work brings together my interests - Creative Arts Therapy and a Studio Practice. I'm curious about therapy rooms, therapy chairs and bodies sitting in chairs. For me there is something worth continuing here.
Tell us why you want to join Quarantine	One, I love Spain and Two, I enjoyed reading your philosophy - there was resonance in my values and beliefs around art and creativity.
Briefly describe your Artistic and Creative difficulties	I have limiting beliefs about my creative potential. I question my artistic skills and emotional intelligence required for artmaking. I also find it difficult to stay focussed on creative projects when they are not deemed successful in society. I grew up with challenges, little resources and a lack of emotional support - old patterns die hard.
What are your inner demons?	Insecurity
Anything else you want us to know?	Nothing comes to mind.
