Good Afternoon,

I am excited to welcome you to the 2024 AEP season of the Walmart program. You should be receiving your initial welcome email from the retail portal in the next 24 hours if you haven't already. Once you receive it, you should go ahead and login to the retail agent portal by following the instruction on the welcome letter.

Once you login, you will need to complete the following items:

1. Complete their MarketPoint Retail Training Program (If you are an existing agent, please make sure to clear your cache and cookies so it does not take you to last years training)
2. Order your name tag and buttons
3. Update your Agent Profile Settings
4. Schedule your events for a minimum of the first two weeks (Opening up on September 20th)
5. Complete your certifications so they will update once the carriers update your status.

Please note: Agents may not see their store assignments immediately upon launch. The agents all need to be loaded and then the store assignments will be completed. I have posted the 2024 Agent Retail Portal Training to help you navigate the portal under the agent materials.

Thank you

Kim Bernia
