As we uncover the ancient secrets of mycology in modern medicine, harness nature's ferocity for renewable energy, explore Earth's vast oceans, and venture out into the cosmos, we must remember that these elements of the universe are all connected.

As you step into the Biomatrix space, your body becomes one with each of these elements. They are the principles of our reality - life, earth, oceans, and cosmos.

ONE - TECH

PROVIDED	REQUIRED
Laptop	Projector / LED Screen
Kinect V2 Camera
Cabling
Soundcard (optional)	Soundsystem (optional)

TWO - INSTALLATION LOGISTICS

Biomatrix runs as an autonomous interactive installation - using a laptop, Kinect tracking camera, and projector.

It activates when it detects a user, and goes into an idle state when inactive.

The purpose of the installation is to explore the embodiment of the fundamental elements of nature.

Transporting the user from functional human-computer interactivity, to augment the sensory system with forces of nature and blend into a world of altered states.
