Babe, I miss you with all my heart, my cells, my bones. It's so painful being away from you, and it just gets worse and more painful. It's so hard for me to fall asleep, I try to close my eyes and picture you right there next to me, as if you were. It makes me feel better, and at the same time, hurts a lot because I know you are not here. The day takes forever to pass, an hour feels like 24 hours. That's why I call it a slow death inside, it's just like an eternity. I keep thinking of you all day, night. And like to hum that song you don't like and don't really know the lyric lol "~~Babe~~ In case you didn't know, babe I'm crazy about you, and I would be lying if I say I could live this life without you" and I feel that song. I don't know for how long they will keep me away from you, but it won't change anything the way I feel about you, it will be just killing me daily."

They got me to try to get you, they want me to help them against you, because they think you have something to do with what happened. They have been trying to get it from me so they would get you, and they will be trying that the whole time they will be holding me here, that's what they want, why they arrested me, trying to put me against you using other things, they even lied about me getting tickets to go back to Brazil when I did not do it. They will use whatever they can against me, and to try to get to you. Cases like this, unfortunately they don't release people, hold them until trial. I know they can offer deals, and I guess I knew the deal they would offer. There is nothing for them to be trying to do it, non sense. However I just wanted to let you know, since I can't be open and tell you on the phone. I'm here but thinking of you all the time, non stop. And I worry a lot about you, I know you are not doing ok, or going through something so hard right now, struggling, just like me. We'll get through this together, doesn't matter what. I love you and miss you tremendously. I'm here and I'll be waiting to see and be with you again. I confess it's easy to picture and think of the worst scenarios, bad things. But I'll do my best.

With Love, Juliana ♡

" You are my whole world, and have been since the first day we were together. I take you just the way ~~you~~ <sup>you</sup> are ♡
