

(I wrote so many letters already, hope you get them at some point. In the meantime, this is just a short way to describe how I feel.)

Hey babe,

One more night sitting on my mattress, 12am or so, and writing to you, after doing search words, reading, organizing my stuff in my cell. I'm in so much pain right now.

I know you don't like me talking on the phone or video, about my feelings, because it makes me more sad and cry. But the reality, that's what I do the most here. I want you to know that I want to come back home to you, lay my head on your chest, and live normal. I want us to have a family, to have a baby, Valerie would be so happy about that, too.

I want us to get married and show our love. I really pray to God to give us that chance. It ~~fulfills~~^{fills} my heart with hope, joy, happiness, when I think about us living that. That's all I want. I hope you have no doubts about it.

When during our video chat you lay on your side (now with a blanket because it's cold) I see the cutest face, this pretty face and smile, Oh God, I miss that, being there, laying right next to you, facing you, spooning, cuddling, all we love to do.

I don't like making letters saying what I'm saying lately, but in case, I hope you always remember us, how we used to be, our love, our intensity, our loyalty, our happiness. I hope you keep looking at our pictures. I hope I'm someone who you will always remember and bring with you. I hope I am/was the one making you happy. You always said you were lucky to have me, but the reality is, I was the lucky one, I had the privilege to have you, to have the best year of my life, the best person I could've asked for. The most loving, caring, compassionate, affectionate person I ever met. You've ~~thought~~^{taught} me a lot, about love, affection, about life. You are the most amazing person I always met, I check the boxes of my checklist with you. I always told you, from 1 to 10, you are a 10. And I mean it. I hope you feel/felt loved by me, you felt that you had all of me this whole time. And so did I. I hope this 23 years old, from Brazil, this tiny (4'10) person, brought happiness and love to you, that you will always remember. I love you with all my heart, Brendan Robert Bankfield.

With love, Juliana Peres ♡

(My heart is broken in a way I never thought it could be. I can't do it without you ♡)

I can't bear living this without you. It's too much pain that I don't want to live like this. I can't. I just don't want to feel this any more. It's a torture.

I love you more than anything.
