Babe, I feel so sad, today was a hard day, I thought I had court, and even knowing my chances to go home is little, I still expected to know, to hear something I'm sorry I'm not there to spend thanksgiving with you guys. I want to believe I'll be there for Christmas and New Year, I really hope so. I already cried a lot in here today, I just feel desperate to go home, to be with you again, or if that is not possible, I don't want to live this, I don't want to keep living, keep going. I would rather get myself sick or something worse to happen to me, than living without you, and I mean it. I've been thinking a lot about it. It hurts me a lot seeing the days, week, month, passing and I'm still here, and I can't see or be with you. I can't talk to my family in Brazil that's terrifying the days here, I just want this to be over, in one way or another, good or bad way. It's terrifying when they lock us in our cells for no reason, for nothing and I can't talk with you at all. I'll never understand why they treat us like this, we are not doing anything to them, being here is already a punishment, so why lock us in, for nothing? Why makes us more anxious? that's my experience here. Being here took away my piece, my sleep, my sanity, my emotional, mental, everything. I just feel the constant fear of not being with you again, not being able to make our dreams/wish to come true. I feel desperate to live those things with you, my love. I just want one more chance, that's all I don't want to lose you, and I don't want you to lose me either (in the worst way). I need you, I can't do this without you, I'm not capable, and not willing. It's too much pain for myself, for the pain I'm causing to them in Brazil. Too much pain being away from you. You are everything to me, babe. So is my family, but I can't live without you all. I can't do this. If I can't be with you, I don't want to live either. You have all of me, and you always did, since the very first day. I love you more than anything and I'm desperate to be with you, missing you a lot.

With love, Juliana Peres (your forever 4'10 Brazilian). ♡

I loved you since the 1st day, yesterday, today and I will always love you, my handsome. ♡
