Friday, February 24th, 2023 will mark one year since the russian army invaded Ukraine. A year of indescribable suffering and bloodshed for the Ukrainian people. A year of the full-scale war in Europe that is still going on.

The killing of the Ukrainian people before the eyes of the world and the destruction of the values of civilized world must stop! The loudest possible international protest against russian aggression and the widest possible solidarity with the Ukrainian people are necessary more than ever.

On Saturday, February 25th, we will
