Well done and thank you to the hardy souls who ventured out into the lashing rain for a bit of “fun” on Kilvey. I did wonder as I made my way back to the van drenched to the bone if there would be any takers, but I need not have feared. Orienteers are a tough bunch, and there were some smiles amongst the grimaces. The finish times show, I either got my planning completely wrong or the weather and poor light affected navigation and route choice more than I could have foreseen, so my apologies if you felt the courses were too hard. It would be interesting to see how quickly it could be run on a dry, sunny evening.

Here’s hoping that the rest of the Summer League does involve Summer. Thanks again, Kerina Lake
