Thank you to everone who ventured out in the rain and gloom to take part in the event. I hope that the courses were enjoyed despite the weather.

A huge thank you to Sam Mitchell and Steve Jones for collecting in controls and for all offers of help, Roger for staying to make sure all competitors made it down safely from the hills, my Mum for her support on the day and not least to William and Freddie who remained cheerful and helpful all day despite the weather the waiting around and the late night.
