What is Stillness

When you're Still, you're only aware of the present—no past, no future. Our members report “losing their sense of self” and experiencing unbroken states of mental focus.

Stillness isn't reserved for elite athletes or the super spiritual—it exists within us all. And when you get Still, you'll see an automatic, tangible impact on what matters most: your work and your relationships.

“I CAN'T BELIEVE THIS WAS IN ME THE WHOLE TIME. I JUST NEVER KNEW IT.”

“THIS IS WHAT IT MEANS TO BE TRULY HUMAN.”

“I'VE NEVER BEEN SO DIALED. I FEEL LIKE THIS FOR UP TO 3 DAYS AFTER THAT INTRO...”

“I SERVED THREE TOURS IN IRAQ. THAT WAS THE FIRST TIME IN OVER A DECADE I REMEMBERED THAT I'M NOT THE FEAR IN MY MIND.”

“I CAN'T DESCRIBE IT, YOU JUST HAVE TO TRY IT.”

Supporting Talent: Altha

ALTHA is a team of healers dedicated to providing a modern approach to the ancient world of sound healing. Combining our experience in high-end corporate events and our deep interest in wellness, it is our passion and our purpose to share the benefits of sound healing in the most welcoming and relaxing way.

Ride Share Sponsor Proposal - Uber

Still Life invites Uber to be the exclusive ride share partner of Still LA due to Uber's position as the premier global ride share brand, and the evident value-alignment.

As the exclusive rideshare partner, Uber will play a vital role in ensuring the convenience and safety of our guests. We propose that Uber provides a custom rideshare code, exclusively for "Still LA" attendees. This code will grant guests access to discounted rides to/from the event, enhancing their overall experience and reflecting our commitment to exceptional hospitality.

"Still LA" focuses on true connection, which requires a sense of mutual vulnerability, safety, and comfort. With Uber, we're confident this feeling will last from the moment our guests leave their homes, to the moment they return, and hopefully beyond.
