Team Quiz

Memorise the key points of a set of content by answering closed and open questions.

This activity requires that new content be introduced to participants beforehand. It encourages participants to review the main points of this content. During the activity, participants will work in teams to prepare closed and open-ended questions based on the notes they took while discovering the content. Then, a quiz is organised between the teams based on their questions.

Number of participants: 4 - 32
