Cross Presentations

Build relationships by getting to know each other in a fun way

This activity encourages participants to get involved and interact with each other right from the start of a session. It strengthens team spirit and group cohesion, and simply allows the session to begin in a more relaxed atmosphere. First, participants pair up and introduce themselves to each other according to criteria established in advance by the facilitator. Then, as a large group, each person is responsible for introducing their teammate.

Number of participants: 8 - 16

Estimated duration: 15 mins

Duration	Step name	Notes	Mode and Rights	Content	Tools
5 mins	Activity presentation	Notes Explain the objective and procedure of the activity.
5 mins	Pair presentations	Notes - Organise the distribution of pairs across the different tables. - Start the timer. - Make the announcement once the timer has expired and restart it. Instructions Take turns introducing yourselves to your partner (2 minutes each) according to the established criteria. The listener should ask questions and take notes.		Instructions - Cross Presentations - Pair presentations	00 h 02 m 00 s The second person introduces themselves.
5 mins	Restitution	Notes - Send the announcement. - Start the timer for each presentation. Instructions - Introduce your partner to the rest of the group in 30 seconds. - Share your comments following these introductions.			00 h 00 m 30 s Come back to the main table.

Legend:

Facilitation mode:

- Independent tables
- Synchronised tables

Participant rights:

- Table library access + Content interactions + Speech
- Content interactions + Speech
- Speech only
- Raise hand