

TANJA TAKES CONTROL

Characters: N-- Narrator, T -- Tanja, K -- Kevin, M -- Tanja's Mom

- N: Tanja had just told her brother Kevin, that she had saved enough money to buy a Golo Shirt. Kevin told her he couldn't believe she was going to buy such an expensive shirt.
- T: "Don't tell me what to do, this is my money."
- N: Tanja calmly looked at her brother. Kevin's mouth dropped open.
- K: "You're going to spend almost $80 on one shirt! Tanja, you are crazy."
- T: "Well, I've never had a Golo shirt, and everybody is getting them."
- K: "But $80 bucks!? Mom, did you know Tanja's going to throw away all of that money she's been saving on one stupid shirt?"
- N: Their mother looked surprised.
- M: "What did you say? Tanja, you can't be serious. You could buy four shirts for $80."
- T: "Look, I know you care about me, but I worked hard to earn my money and I want to spend it on this shirt."
- N: Her mom looked at her with amazement.
- M: "But, Tanja, every day you talk about not having enough clothes. Now you want to spend all of your money on one thing. It doesn't make sense."
- N: Tanja took a deep breath to stay calm, and talked in a soft voice.
- T: "I've made up mind I was going to get a Golo shirt and I've been planning for a long time to get it. I've saved this money for seven weeks. I have $94 and the shirt costs $78. I'll still have a little money left over."
- K: "Boy, I would have spent it a long time ago."
- T: "It hasn't been easy. I was tempted to spend some of it at the mall when my friends were buying earrings. I really wanted a new pair and they were even on sale. But I didn't get them."
- M: "Tanja, I didn't realize that it was this important to you and that you have had this plan for such a long time. It sounds like you know what you want. I've got to run some errands, and I can drop you off at the mall."
- N: Tanja hugged her mom.
- T: "Mom, thanks for listening."
