

Educational Web Resources

The Transitions Curriculum lessons provide strong content and varied activities that may be further enhanced with additional resources. We encourage you to use the following list of “Educational Web Resources” to access additional information to support lesson content and your teaching style.

1. Bullying Prevention Resources

<http://www.adl.org/combatbullying> A civil rights advocacy group, the Anti-Defamation League, offers tips for parents and resources for teachers on standing up to bullying. The website also provides suggestions on ways to recognize that a student is being bullied.

2. Bullying Prevention Topics

<http://www.stopbullyingnow.hrsa.gov/> The US Health and Human Services Administration site offers strategies and discussion on bullying. Topics such as: Are you bullying?; Are you being bullied?; and Have you seen someone bullied? Topics are accompanied by activities and suggestions on helping students learn new and better skills.

3. Disability Disclosure Guide

<http://www.ncwd-youth.info/411-on-disability-disclosure> The National Collaboration on Workforce and Disability guide on Disability Disclosure provides discussion topics and activities to help a student make a personal decision as to whether or not disclose their disability.

4. Dropout and Graduation Rates

<http://www.dropoutprevention.org/> Top 5 Reasons to Stay in School discusses rates of graduation, losses in employment opportunities and other social and financial difficulties resulting from dropping out of school. Materials here can be used to motivate students to stay in school.

5. Employment Salary Information

<http://usgovinfo.about.com/od/moneymatters/a/edandearnings.htm> Provides information on the monetary value of education across various diplomas and degrees, including dropout data. Updated periodically.

6. Laws and Regulations

<http://www.wrightslaw.com/info/stop/htm> Website provides up to date information on topics relating to regulations and the law.

7. NeoK12 Educational Videos

www.neok12.com Aggregator of high-quality educational videos from around the Web. Offers suggestions for teaching the concept, printables, quizzes, other interesting print materials.

8. Resources for Young Workers

<https://www.dol.gov/general/topic/youthlabor/studentworkers> The Department of Labor posts special Web pages for young people, both for those old enough to work and those not old enough, that provide information on topics ranging from student volunteerism to job safety.

9. SchoolTube Student Videos

<http://www.schooltube.com/> Video sharing platform for schools featuring original content created by students.

10. TeacherTube Educational Videos

<http://www.teachertube.com/> Online aggregator of educational videos.

11. TED Talks Educational Presentations

www.ted.org/ Fascinating presentations by the world's leading thinkers and doers.

12. Transition to Postsecondary Education

<https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/transitionguide.html> This guide was developed by the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR) and provides information about Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability.

13. Vimeo Education Videos

www.vimeo.com Upload, share and explore user-generated videos.

14. YouTube EDU Lectures

www.youtube.com/edu Also see: Talks@Google Free lectures from more than one hundred colleges and universities.