 - 2.4.4. is a high-risk person under the anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing rules applied by the Company, or is operating in a country or in an activity which, in the opinion of the Company, has an inadequate level of anti-corruption protection or a high-risk activity;
 - 2.4.5. is engaged in an activity which, in the opinion of the Company, is an activity subject to special requirements, or a similar activity, without holding a valid licence, business licence and so forth.

3. ONBOARDING THE CLIENT

- 3.1. The moment when the Company and the Client enter into the business relationship shall be understood as the moment when onboarding of the Client is completed by the Company in accordance with the Company's internal procedures and the applicable laws.
- 3.2. The Company commences providing Services only if the Client submits all and any information (including, but not limited to, information about the Client's country of residence for tax purposes, the Client's address in that country, the Client's taxpayer identification number, etc.) and documents (including, but not limited to documents and information confirming the source of the Client's funds and other assets, the purpose and intended nature of the Client's business relationship with the Company, the nature of the Client's activity, etc.) reasonably requested by the Company to perform KYC / AML due diligence procedure, to assess Client's risk and its compliance with Company's risk appetite, Client's eligibility for the Company.
- 3.3. The Company shall have the right to perform the Client's re-identification, to update the information collected during the KYC / AML due diligence process, or to take additional steps to identify the Client.
- 3.4. The Company is entitled to require additional documents and / or information from the Client and the Client has an obligation to provide requested additional documents and / or information to the Company.
- 3.5. The Company, acting reasonably, shall assign the Client's risk level in its sole discretion. The Company accepts only those Clients that are of acceptable risk level.
- 3.6. Documents must be submitted to the Company in the form required by the Company, e.g., the Company may require original documents or copies of documents certified by a notary public; copies of documents certified by an Apostille or legalised, etc.
- 3.7. Documents submitted to the Company must be prepared in Lithuanian, English or another language specified by the Company. If the documents submitted to the Company are drawn up in a language not acceptable to the Company, the Company shall have the right to require that they are translated into Lithuanian or another language specified by the Company, the translation is signed by the translator, and the authenticity of his/her signature certified by a notary public.
- 3.8. All costs of preparation, delivery, approval and translation of the Client's documents submitted to the Company shall be borne by the Client.

- 3.9. During the ongoing business relationship, if there are any changes in the provided data or documents, the Client agrees to provide updated information as soon as possible, but not later than 5 Business Days after the changes have occurred.
- 3.10. At the time of identification of the Client and/or updating of the Client's data, the Company may restrict the provision of the Services to the extent the Company deems necessary.
- 3.11. The Company will notify the Client by e-mail about the results of the due diligence procedures carried out (i.e. if the Client is accepted or not, the Company will ask for additional documents to complete the procedure).
- 3.12. The Company has the right to refuse to accept the Client as the new customer without indicating the reasons, however, the Company assures that the refusal to accept will always be based on significant reasons which the Company do not have to or does not have the right to reveal.
- 3.13. After the Company approves Client's acceptance, the Company opens the E-Money Account as set forth in these T&C.

4. PROVISION OF SERVICES

If Client is not a consumer, the Parties agree not to apply: (i) time limit for termination (as indicated in clauses 14.4, 14.5), (ii) Client losses limitation that have arisen due to unauthorised Transaction (as indicated in clause 5.12), (iii) notification period for the unauthorised transactions set forth in section III and Article 36 (as indicated in clause 12.1), 37 (as indicated in clause 12.5), 39 (as indicated in clause 5.12) of the Lithuanian Law on Payments and other as is allowed under the applicable laws.

4.1. E-MONEY ACCOUNT

4.1.1. The E-money account can be opened to a natural person who:

- 4.1.1.1. is a resident in one of the EEA countries; and
- 4.1.1.2. has the full legal capacity to enter into an agreement; and
- 4.1.1.3. is 18 years old or over.

4.1.2. The Company will publish requirements for legal entity eligibility once and when the Company will open possibility to sign up for legal entities.

4.1.3. When the Company accepts the Client as set forth in these T&C, the Company shall open the E-Money Account for the Client.

4.1.4. The Client's rights in connection with E-Money Account are limited exclusively to execute Transactions to Client's or other user's accounts held with the Company, to receive and keep funds, transfer funds to Clients or other persons owned payment accounts opened with another legally licensed payment service provider, settling amounts due to the Company for the Services provided under these T&C, reviewing the balance and other financial information of the E-Money Account, withdraw funds from the E-Money Account in the manner established in these T&C. The Client agrees that the Client will not be able to control or manage the E-Money Account otherwise than stated in these T&C.

4.1.5. The Client by opening the E-Money Account undertakes:

- 4.1.5.1. to take all reasonable steps to keep the Security Credentials safe;
- 4.1.5.2. to contact the Company immediately without the undue delay when becoming aware of any loss, theft, misappropriation or unauthorised use of the E-Money Account or Security Credentials.
- 4.1.6. The Client agrees that access to and use of the E-Money Account may be interrupted and the Services may be limited or unavailable from time to time because of operational maintenance, update, upgrade, errors of the system or other reasons including those that are beyond the Company's control.
- 4.1.7. The Client will be notified in advance, at least in 5 Business Days about any regular or possible operational maintenance, update or upgrade of the System that may limit access to or use the Services.
- 4.1.8. The Client can supplement E-Money Account following the means listed below:
 - 4.1.8.1. by transferring funds to the Client (Payee) E-Money Account from Client's (as Payer) or other Payer's payment account, opened in the Company or another legally licensed payment service provider;
 - 4.1.8.2. by transferring funds when using a debit or credit card, issued in the name of the Client;
 - 4.1.8.3. by using other methods allowed in the System (for example, using credit issued by third party service provider, etc.).
- 4.1.9. If funds are kept in the E-Money Account in different currencies, then the currency exchange rates are published on the Company Website or provided in the annex to these T&C for separate Payment Instrument. The currency is changed based on the currency exchange rates valid at the moment of conversion. The Client must check the applicable currency exchange rate before the Transaction, since amendments to the currency exchange rate are implemented immediately and without separate notification to the Client.
- 4.1.10. If funds are kept in the E-Money Account in different currencies, the Client undertakes responsibility for possible depreciation of funds due to changes in currency exchange rates and shall not have a right to raise claims to the Company with this respect.
- 4.1.11. Regardless of the limits arising from the AML requirements, the Parties can agree on specific payment operations limits set on the E-Money Account. The agreed specific payment operations limits on the E-Money Account are set and can be checked in the System.
- 4.1.12. If the Client has not been using the E-Money Account for more than 2 years, the Company shall have a right to unilaterally terminate these T&C and close the E-Money Account following the provisions set forth in these T&C.
- 4.1.13. Funds held on the E-Money Account shall be considered as E-Money which the Company issues after funds owed to the Client are transferred to the E-Money Account. After the Company receives funds, the Company converts funds into E-Money at the nominal value. The received funds are kept in the Company's segregated account opened in accordance with applicable laws.
- 4.1.14. E-money held on the E-Money Account shall not be regarded as a deposit and the Company does not, in any circumstances, pay any interest on E-Money held on the E-Money Account and does not provide any other benefits relevant for the deposits and associated with the time period the E-money is stored. Funds in the E-Money Account are not protected by the Deposit Insurance Fund (more information is available at: <https://www.iidraudimas.lt/en/>).

- 4.1.15. At the moment of payment order from the E-Money Account and / or offset of amounts due with the Company or with other third party service providers, E-Money shall be redeemed at their nominal value, except as otherwise established under legal acts. No specific conditions for E-Money redemption that would differ from the standard conditions for transfers and other payment operations performed on E-Money Account shall be applied.
- 4.1.16. The Client at any time until the termination of these T&C can request the Company to redeem the E-Money in whole or in part held on E-Money Account at its monetary value. Such redemption of E-Money is subject to Fees and Charges as published on the Company website.
- 4.1.17. When redemption of E-Money is requested by the Client on or up to one year after the date of the termination of these T&C the total monetary value of the E-Money held in the E-Money Account shall be redeemed by the Company.

4.2. EXECUTION OF PAYMENTS

- 4.2.1. The Transaction is considered authorised only when the Client (Payer) provides a consent. The Client (Payer) may provide the consent in the form and manner prescribed by the Company. Usually, the consent should be confirmed by using Security Credentials. The Client does not have right to challenge the Transaction executed by the Company if payment order has been approved by the consent provided by using Security Credentials.
- 4.2.2. The consent of the Client (Payer) has to be given before the execution of the Transaction.
- 4.2.3. The Transactions are performed following the payment order, which can be provided via App, User's Portal, Payment Instruments or other means provided by the Company.
- 4.2.4. Consent to execute one or several Transactions may also be given via the Payee or the payment initiation service provider.
- 4.2.5. The Company undertakes to ensure proper execution of payments following terms and conditions agreed herein and legal act requirements.
- 4.2.6. The Company shall execute the payment order if:
- 4.2.6.1. payment order contains sufficient information required by the Company; and
 - 4.2.6.2. payment order is authorized by the Client (i.e. the Client has given the consent); and
 - 4.2.6.3. E-Money Account has sufficient and unrestricted Balance in the currency of the payment order (except cases when Transaction is executed from the credit line funds provided under separate agreement by the Company or a third party).
- 4.2.7. Once the Company receives the payment order, the payment order becomes irrevocable. Save for the below mentioned rules for cancellation of payment order:
- 4.2.7.1. the payment order cannot be cancelled after the reception of it by the Company, except in cases provided for in these T&C;
 - 4.2.7.2. when a payment transaction is initiated by or through a payment initiation service provider or Payee, the Client (Payer) may not cancel the payment order after the payment initiation service provider has given consent to initiate the payment transaction or the Payee has given consent to perform the payment transaction;
 - 4.2.7.3. in case of direct debit, the Client (Payer) may cancel the payment order at the latest by the end of the Business Day preceding the day on which the funds have been agreed to be debited from the E-Money Account;

4.2.7.4. in case the payment order was given in accordance with clause 4.2.10 of these T&C, it may be cancelled without additional charges one Business Day before the agreed day, until the end of a Business Day of the Company.

4.2.8. When a payment order to transfer money to the payment account of another payment service provider is received, the Company performs the Transaction in accordance with the Unique Identifier provided in the payment order. The Company is not responsible if the Unique Identifier is not provided in the payment order or is incorrect, and/or the Payee's payment service provider has set a different Unique Identifier for appropriate execution of such Transaction (crediting of money to the Payee's payment account). If the Unique Identifier provided by the Client is incorrect, the Company is not liable for the failure to execute a payment order. The Company undertakes to take all reasonable steps to trace the payment order and seek to recover the funds used in the payment order. Where the recovery of funds as referred to in this clause is impossible, the Company, on the request from the Client provided in writing or in a durable medium, undertakes to provide the Client with all available information which is relevant to the Client in order to enable him/her/it to take legal action in order to recover funds, including submitting a claim to court.

4.2.9. The payment order is considered received by the Company (calculation of the time period of execution of such payment order starts) on the day of its submission along with any information that the Company would require under its AML procedures, or, if the moment of submission of the payment order is not a Business Day of the Company, the payment order is considered received on the nearest Business Day of the Company. The payment order was received by the Company on a Business Day of the Company but not on business hours set by the Company, is considered received on the nearest Business Day, unless the payment order indicates that payment operation is internal within the Company.

4.2.10. The Parties shall have the right to agree that the payment order shall be executed on a particular agreed day. The agreement between Parties is considered to be concluded when the Client submits the one-off or recurring payment order with a set date of payment execution. In such case, the date of the receipt of the payment order shall be considered that particular agreed day or, in case it is not a Business Day, the payment order shall be considered received on the nearest Business Day.

4.2.11. Payment orders initiated by the Client may be a subject to payment limits due to security and legal requirements. These limits are set dynamically depending on the Client's verification status and overall profile of the Client.

4.2.12. Payment orders are subject to Fees and Charges as published on the Company website or provided in another document that is available to the Client.

4.2.13. Terms for payment order execution:

4.2.13.1. in case a payment order shall be executed within the Company (i.e. internal transfer) – payment order shall be executed immediately, i.e. up to a few minutes, unless the payment order is suspended due to cases set forth by legal acts and / or these T&C, regardless of business hours of the Company;

4.2.13.2. in case a payment order shall be executed within EU/EEA through SEPA transfer scheme – payment order shall be executed within 1 Business Day, unless the payment order is suspended due to cases set forth by legal acts and / or these T&C, regardless of business hours of the Company;

4.2.13.3. in case a payment order shall be executed within EU/EEA but not in the currency of EUR or in EUR but executed not through SEPA transfer scheme – payment order shall be executed not later than within 4 Business Days, unless the payment order is suspended due to cases set forth by legal acts and / or these T&C, regardless of business hours of the Company;

4.2.13.4. in case a payment order shall be executed not within EU/EEA in any currency, including in EUR through non-SEPA transfer scheme but excluding in EUR through SEPA transfer scheme – payment order shall be executed within 10 Business Days. The Company shall not be responsible for any delays in the procession of a payment order if the delay is caused by circumstances that are not in the Company's control such as delays caused by a beneficiary bank or a correspondent bank that processes the payment.

4.2.14. For payment orders executed not within EU/EEA area and/or not in EUR additional terms and rules may apply as published on the Company website.

4.2.15. The Client agrees that the Company reserves the right to refuse to execute the Client's payment order, suspend it or cancel the execution of a Payment Order submitted by the Client. In case of refusal to execute a payment order, the Company immediately informs the Client, except in cases when such notification is technically impossible or prohibited by applicable laws. A payment order refused by the Company shall be deemed not to have been received.

4.2.16. In case the Transaction was initiated through a Payee, the Client (Payer) has the right to apply to the Company within 8 (eight) weeks from the date of debiting the funds from the Client's E-Money Account for the return of the funds debited according to the payment order. After this term expires, the Client (Payer) loses the right to request a refund, except for the case of refund specified in section 12 of these T&C.

4.3. CASH PLACEMENT TO AND WITHDRAWALS FROM THE E-MONEY ACCOUNT

4.3.1. The Clients have the right to place cash to or withdraw it from the E-Money Account, if the Client has a valid payment card linked to the E-Money Account. Terms and conditions on cash placement or withdrawal using this Payment instrument are set out in the separate annex to the T&C.

4.3.2. Clients without payment cards may also use the services indicated in clause 4.3.1 at these locations www.w1tty.com under the terms as set out in the separate annex to the T&C.

4.4. CREDIT SERVICES

4.4.1. The Clients may apply for short-term loans (not exceeding 12 months period) in the form of credit line. The Company grants these loans under the conditions set out in the separate annex to the T&C. The credit to the E-Money Account might be provided by the third parties through the System.

4.4.2. In the Client initiates a payment using a credit issued by the Company of a third party, the same conditions for the execution of the transaction apply as provided in these T&C or terms for the Payment Instrument used to execute the Transaction. The Client agrees that the Company, acting for its own or for other third party credit service provider's benefit, shall have the right to perform unilateral settlements (set-offs) of any outstanding amounts of the Client that arise from credit agreement(s) concluded by the Client from the Balance of the Client's E-Money Account.

4.5. ACQUIRING

4.5.1. The Company may provide acquiring of payment transactions services for the Clients. These Services are provided according to the separate rules and conditions set out in the annex to the T&C.

4.6. PAYMENT INITIATION AND ACCOUNT INFORMATION SERVICES

4.6.1. The Company provides payment initiation and account information under the conditions set out in the separate annex to the T&C.

4.7. PERFORMING THE OPERATIONS VIA E-CHANNELS

4.7.1. The User shall have the right to carry out the Operations allowed by the Company to be performed via the respective E-Channel. The Company shall have the right to allow the User to conclude agreements and sign the documents on behalf of the Client via the E-Channels if the Company is satisfied that the User has the necessary authorizations for signing such an agreement and/or documents.

4.7.2. The Client and/or the User shall have no right to challenge the Operation (e. g. a payment order, a concluded agreement, etc.) if the Operation has been performed by the User using the Security Credentials.

4.7.3. Any agreements concluded with the Company in the Client's name via the E-Channels and confirmed/signed by using the Security Credentials means shall be equivalent to the agreements concluded between the Client or its authorized person and the Company in writing.

4.7.4. Any instructions to the Company to perform an Operation and other actions submitted/performed via the E-Channels by using the Security Credentials shall be considered submitted/performed by the User and shall be equally valid as the actions performed by the Client itself. If the Company proves that the authentication procedure has been used by another person through the Client's or the User's fault, the performed Operations shall be considered performed by the User and shall be equally valid as the Operations performed by the Client itself.

4.7.5. The Client hereby authorizes the User to perform the Operations on behalf of the Client. No change in the Client's and the User relationships (e.g., expiry of the employment relations, etc.) shall affect the validity of the T&C until the Client and/or the User notifies the Company about that.

4.7.6. The Company shall have the right to suspend the use of the E-Channels for important reasons (technical maintenance, software replacement or development, etc.).

4.7.7. The Company may record the User's phone calls and register the Users' activities and the Operations performed via the E-Channels and such records, if necessary, may be used as a proof of the Operations performed via the E-Channels.

4.8. RECEIVING FUNDS INTO THE E-MONEY ACCOUNT

4.8.1. Funds shall be deemed to be received into the E-money Account after the funds have been credited to the E-Money Account and are visible in the Balance.

5. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE CLIENT

5.1. The Client undertakes to immediately inform the Company of any changes which may occur from time to time regarding any information or documents that the Client provided, including the information provided in the course of the onboarding due diligence procedure, or in case the Client is a legal entity, as well as information related to Client's business, legal status, corporate structure, beneficial ownership.

5.2. The Client shall have a right to receive these T&C and other annexes, rules and regulations on Services provided in paper form or in other durable medium.

- 5.3. During the ongoing business relationship between the Parties, upon request of the Company the Client shall provide additional information and / or documents related to the Client, its business activity and / or to provide Services in order to properly mitigate AML risks.
- 5.4. The Client shall periodically (once a year or at any other time frame requested by the Company) update the questionnaire and provide all supplementing, supporting documents, data and information, related to KYC processes in order to comply with applicable laws. The Company will notify and send the request to the Client and give a time period to provide the required documents, data and information.
- 5.5. The Client shall provide with all available information about any unauthorised entrance into the System, as well as about any illegal actions of third parties performed in the result of such unauthorised entrance. The Client undertakes to assist in investigating of the unauthorised or incorrectly executed Transactions.
- 5.6. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the Company shall have the right to sub-contract any of the obligations under these T&C without Client's prior consent and may engage, in its sole discretion, third-party providers to assist to provide Services to the Client, and that the Company shall have the right to transfer to Company's third-party providers all data that the Client provided, or cause to be available to the Company in connection with these T&C, provided, however, that such third-party providers are bound by confidentiality obligations and abide themselves to data protection requirements set by the Company and data protection laws. The Client may obtain information about Company's partnership with third-party providers and contact data upon request to the Company.
- 5.7. The Client accepts that if the Company believe that the Transaction is fraudulent or illegal, the respective Transaction will be declined or cancelled. In case the Client notices that the E-Money Account was credited without any legal or economic ground the Client must immediately inform the Company. The Client gives its consent for the Company to deduct these funds without the Client's payment order. In case of insufficient funds in the E-Money Account for the Company to deduct such credited amount, provisions set in clause 6.4 of the T&C shall apply.
- 5.8. The Clients are prohibited (List of Prohibited Actions):
- 5.8.1. to use the Services for any unlawful or illegal purposes including without limitation fraud, money laundering and / or terrorist financing, or other criminal or illegal activities;
 - 5.8.2. to use the Services for other purposes than have been declared by the Client during the onboarding. The Client can use the Services for other purposes only with the Company's prior written consent;
 - 5.8.3. to provide the Company with false, misleading or inaccurate information;
 - 5.8.4. to use Services in connection with the countries outside EEA;
 - 5.8.5. to introduce viruses or other malware and destructive components into the System;

 - 5.8.7. to use the Services in a manner that may violate any applicable laws;
 - 5.8.8. to disclose Security Credentials to any third parties.
- 5.9. If the Client breaches or the Company has grounds to suspect that the Client may be in breach of the above prohibitions and / or is involved in activities included on the List of Prohibited Activities, the Company reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, to:
- 5.9.1. reverse the Transaction or refuse in the Transaction execution; and / or

- 5.9.2. suspend and / or close the E-Money Account together with funds within, terminate provision of the Services to the Client and terminate these T&C as set forth herein; and / or
- 5.9.3. inform other holders of the E-Money Account, the counter party of the Transaction, as well as another payment service provider involved in the Transaction execution about the breach of the above prohibitions; and / or
- 5.9.4. take legal actions against the Client; and / or
- 5.9.5. claim losses and damages from the Client.
- 5.10. Unless the Company is prohibited from doing so by law, the Company will notify the Client about the actions the Company took or imposed against the Client or the E-Money Account in connection with the Client's breach of the above prohibitions. The Client shall bear and reimburse with any losses of the Company incurred due to such breach.
- 5.11. The Client is liable for correctness of data, orders and documents submitted to the Company.
- 5.12. The Client bears all the losses that have arisen due to unauthorised Transaction for the amount of up to EUR 50 if these losses have been incurred due to: (i) the usage of a lost or stolen Payment Instrument or (ii) the illegal acquisition of a Payment Instrument. The losses limitation is not applied if the Client is not a consumer. The Client also bears any the losses incurred due to unauthorised Transaction if the Client has incurred the losses as a result of acting dishonestly or due to gross negligence or intentionally not fulfilling one or several of the obligations indicated below:
 - 5.12.1. to comply with the rules regulating the issuance and usage of the Payment Instrument provided in these T&C or its annexes, when using the Payment Instrument;
 - 5.12.2. to notify the Company immediately using means of communication provided in the Article 1.1.6, in case the Client finds out about a loss, theft, illegal acquisition or unauthorised usage of the Payment Instrument, about facts and suspicions that Security Credentials have become known to or can be used by third person;
 - 5.12.3. to undertake all possible measures to protect Security Credentials after the Payment Instrument has been issued.

6. FEES AND CHARGES. CURRENCY CONVERSION

- 6.1. The Company provides Services for the fees agreed by the Parties and published on the Company website.
- 6.2. The Client gives a consent to deduct respective amounts of Fees and Charges due at any time without notice from the Balance of the E-Money Account.
- 6.3. The Fees and Charges are payable in Euro. In the event that there is insufficient amount of funds available in Euro currency to pay the Fees or Charges, the Company shall have the right to exchange funds that the Client hold on the E-Money Account in currency other than Euro into Euro currency by applying the currency exchange rates that are published on the Company website.
- 6.4. If any of the Fees and Charges applicable to the Client under these T&C have not been deducted from the Balance of the E-Money Account, including without limitation the case when the Balance of the E-Money Account is insufficient to make such deductions, the Company issue an invoice for the amount owed to the Company which shall be paid by the Client within 3 Business Days in accordance with the procedures set forth in the invoice.
- 6.5. The Company reserves the right to apply default interest of 0.05% for each breach day. All bank transfer fees and charges related to payment of the invoices shall be borne by the Client.

- 6.6. The Client understands that the Company may take debt collection or enforcement measures including without limitation involving of a debt collection agency or initiating a court proceeding in order to claim debts the Client owes to the Company while holding the Client liable to all costs incurred in the course of such measures.
- 6.7. The Company shall not be obligated to determine whether taxes, duties and other relevant charges apply for the Client, and are not responsible for the assessment, collecting, reporting, remitting or payment of any taxes, duties and other relevant charges incidental to and arising from any sale of goods or services by the Client (if any).

7. SECURITY MEASURES

- 7.1. The Client shall use the Services in accordance with these T&C and other documents regulating the provision of Services.
- 7.2. To authorise the Transactions, the Client may be required to use Security Credentials. Any Transaction carried out remotely using Security Credentials are deemed to be initiated by the Client themselves.
- 7.3. The Company may introduce additional security measures for the additional Services or products. The Company will notify the Client of any such security measures in advance.
- 7.4. The Client is solely responsible for safely keeping Security Credentials.
- 7.5. The Client shall inform the Company about any requests received by the Client to enter or otherwise disclose the Security Credentials. If at any time the Client becomes aware or suspects that the Client's Security Credentials have been lost, stolen, misappropriated, used without authorisation or otherwise compromised, the Client shall notify the Company without undue delay and, if there is such possibility, immediately change Security Credentials to the E-Money Account. The Client understands that any undue delay in notifying may result in the Client being liable for any losses or damages arising from the above lost, theft, misappropriation, or unauthorised use.
- 7.6. It is the Client's responsibility to ensure that any computer or other system, software, equipment or device therefrom the Client access or use the E-Money Account is protected and free from any viruses or other malware and destructive components.
- 7.7. It is also recommended to the Client to:
 - 7.7.1. protect devices with passwords, PIN codes or other safety measures.
 - 7.7.2. evaluate received emails, SMSs with cautiousness, even if we are indicated as the sender. The Company will never request the Client to download attachments or install software. Attachments to fraud e-mails may contain viruses which can harm devices or pose a risk to the safety of Client's E-Money Account.
 - 7.7.3. not to click on unknown links, open unknown documents, install software or application from unknown, unreliable sources or visit unsafe websites.
- 7.8. If the Client notices any suspicious activity on their E-Money Account, unauthorised Transaction and thinks that third persons may have logged in to the App, User Portal for the using of the Services, the Client shall:
 - 7.8.1. immediately inform the Company thereof and request to block the Client's E-Money Account;
 - 7.8.2. provide with all available information about any unauthorized entrance, as well as about any illegal actions of third parties performed in the result of such unauthorized entrance. The Client undertakes to assist in investigating of the unauthorized or incorrectly executed Transactions;

7.8.3. in order to continue to use the E-Money Account, the Client shall change the Security Credentials, use other instruments to access the E-Money Account.

7.9. In case the Company detects any unauthorized Transactions or access to the Client's E-Money Account, the Company will block such unauthorized activities and inform the Client about the security measures implied. The Client shall change the Security Credentials in order to avoid further unauthorized activities.

7.10. To the extent permitted by the applicable laws and regulations, the Company shall not be liable for any losses or damages the Client incurs due to Client's failure to comply with the above requirements.

 - 13.1.8. in the event of change of the Client's (if the Client is a legal entity) representative and / or cancelation or expiry of the documents confirming the powers of such representative to act on the Client's behalf for the purposes of these T&C until the Company verifies the identity of the newly appointed or empowered representative and / or receives the updated documents confirming his / her powers;
 - 13.1.9. if the validity term of Client's or Client's representative's (if the Client is a legal entity) provided personal identification document expires. Suspension term will continue until updated documents are provided;
 - 13.1.10. the Company is provided with evidence-based information about the Client's death;
 - 13.1.11. if the Client breaches or the Company has grounds to suspect that the Client may be in breach of the provisions of these T&C, or any other conditions applicable to the Services;

13.1.12. if the Company is required to do so by law, including under the requirement of the competent authorities.

13.2. The Company may also suspend the Services and/or functionalities of the E-Money Account on reasonable grounds such as:

13.2.1. risk to the security of the E-Money Account;

13.2.2. risk to E-Money Account's security features, including Security Credentials;

13.2.3. an unauthorized or fraudulent use of the Client's Payment Instruments and/or E-Money Account has occurred;

13.2.4. allegedly illegal or not compliant use of the Payment Instruments and/or E-Money Account.

13.3. The Company may suspend and hold the payment if the Company has grounds to suspect that the Client is sending or receiving funds in breach of the Agreement and/or law.

13.4. The Company will notify the Client (by e-mail at the Client's verified e-mail address and on the App) of any suspension or restriction and of the reasons for such suspension or restriction in accordance with these T&C as soon as practically possible either before the suspension/restriction or thereafter, unless notifying the Client or providing the Client with the reasons for the suspension or restriction would be unlawful or compromise Company's or third-party suppliers' security interests. The Company will recall suspension and / or the restriction as soon as practicable after the reasons for the suspension and / or restriction have ceased to exist.

13.5. The Client accepts that if the Company suspends the E-Money Account, the Company will restrict operations on the E-Money Account, restricts the Client in using of the Services. The Company may refuse in execution of Transactions or other instructions provided by the Client while the E-Money Account is suspended.

13.6. The Client understands that when the Company suspends the Services, the Company acts in the Client's, the Company's or third parties' interests.

14. TERMINATION. CLOSURE OF THE E-MONEY ACCOUNT

14.1. The Company is entitled to terminate these T&C with immediate effect, terminate provision of the Services to the Client and close the E-Money Account in the following cases:

14.1.1. the Client fails to comply with the Company's requests to complete due diligence procedures carried out and / or due diligence procedures carried out under these T&C are not completed to the Company's satisfaction;

14.1.2. the Client's risk changes and can no longer be assessed as acceptable to the Company, or if the Client fails to provide the Company with information or documents requested in the course of their relationship;

14.1.3. the Company is not able to check accuracy of the information the Client provided in the course of the due diligence procedures carried out;

14.1.4. the Client breaches or the Company has grounds to suspect that the Client may be in breach of any of the representations and warranties set out herein or provided with untrue, inaccurate or incomplete information with respect to such representations and warranties;
